SRI ADI SANKARA BHAGAVADPADACHARYA

Sri Adi Sankara Bhagavadpadacharya (509 BC ~ 477 BC) was born in Kaladi, Kerala to a brahmin couple, Shivaguru and his wife Aryamba, by the grace of Sri Lord Vadukunathar, on Vaishaka Shukla Panchami (5th day) Sunday, 509 B.C., Nandana Samvatsara, in the constellation Punarvasu, and in the lagna of Dhanus. He travelled throughout Bharatam to propagate the preservation of the Vedas and to re-establish the philosophy of Advaitam or Absolute Monism.

Adi Sankara established four Shishya mutts around the four corners of India and finally established the Kanchi Kamakoti Peetam, Kanchipuram, becoming its first Guru. The establishment dates of the various Mutts are as follows:

1. Dwaraka Mutt 490 B.C.
2. Jyotir Mutt 485 B.C.
3. Govardhana Mutt 484 B.C.
4. Kudali-Sringeri Mutt 483 B.C.
5. Kanchi Kamakoti Mutt 481 B.C.

At the age of 32, Adi Sankara ascended the Sarvagya Peetam at the Kamakshi Temple in Kanchipuram and later attained samadhi there itself merging himself with Goddess Kamakshi. His Adhistanam or Samadhi Stal is located in the outer praharam of the Kamakshi Temple at Kanchipuram, Tamil Nadu.

Birthplace of Sri Adi Sankaracharya:

It is well known that Adi Sankaracharya was born at Kaladi, Kerala. It has been the age old tradition for the pregnant mothers to give birth to their first child at their parent's house. Similarly Sri Sankara's mother went to her parent's house and gave birth to Sri Adi Sankaracharya at her mother's ancestral house. Chinmaya International Foundation is maintaining Mother Aryamba's ancestral house located in Veliyanad at Edakkattuvayal village, Ernakulam, Kerala. This area in Ernakulam was in Kaladi which was encompassing all these regions (Ernakulam etc) in those days, which later got broken / separated and renamed as Veliyanad etc.

HISTORICAL DATA ON THE SANKARACHARYAS OF SRI KANCHI KAMAKOTI PEETAM

The historical details of the Kamakoti Acharya-s can be accessed from three important textual sources i.e. Punya Sloka Manjari, Guru Ratna Mala and its commentary Sushama.

PUNYA SLOKA MANJARI:

The work Punya Sloka Manjari is a compilation by the 56th Acharya, Shri Sadashiva Bodhendra Sarasvati, about the various Acharya-s preceding him. This acharya was born near the banks of the Uttara Pinakini to one Chikkanna Adhvani of the Chiruta family. He stayed as Pithadhipati for 26 years and attained Siddhi at Rameshvara on 4639 Vilambi Chaitra Krishna Ashtami (CE 1538-Apr-03). The jeeva samadhi adhistanam of this acharya is located inside the temple praharam below the Sahasra Lingam.

The Punya Sloka Manjari indicates the number of years the various acharyas remained as peethadhipati, their aradhana thithis, available information about their purvashrama (life before sannyasa) i.e. their name, their parents' name, their Gotra etc. This back pages of this year's calendar contains the sanskrit slokas and the english translation of "Punya Sloka Manjari".

GURU RATNA MALA:

The work "Guru Ratna Mala" was composed by the well-known Avadhuta, Shri Sadashiva Brahmendra Sarasvati. It is a stotra of the Advaita Guru Parampara starting from the Adi Guru Dakshinamurti through to Shri Adi Sankara Bhagavatpada and covering all the Acharya Parampara of the Kanchi Kamakoti Sarvajna Peetham until the 57th Acharya Shri Paramashivendra Sarasvati, the Guru of the composer. The last verse of this work explicitly states that it was composed at the request of Shri Atmabodhendra Sarasvati, the 58th Acharya. This work specifically contains references to historical facts related to the acharyas. For example the astronomer Aryabhata (CE 476-550) is referred to as the contemporary of the 23rd Acharya Shri Sacchitsukhendra Sarasvati (siddhi: CE 511); the scholar of poetry and dramaturgy Ananda Vardhana (CE 820-890) to the 39th Acharya Shri Sacchidvilasendra Sarasvati (siddhi: CE 872) etc. More pertinent is that out of 86 verses of the Guru Ratna Mala composed on the Acharya parampara, 21 verses are about Adi Sankara only, the events of His avatara such as upanayana, sannyasa, meeting his guru Shri Govinda Bhagavatpada, composition of Bhashya-s, darshana of Lord Vishvanatha and Vyasa at Kashi, meeting with Kumarila Bhatta, victory over Mandana Mishra, receiving the Sphatika Linga-s at Kailasa, digvijaya, reaching Kanchi, pacifying the fierce form of Devi Kamakshi by installing the Shrichakra there, ascension to Sarvajna Peetham at Kanchi, establishing other Matha-s, establishing the Kanchi Matha and finally attaining Siddhi at Kanchi.

SUSHAMA:

Sushama, a commentary on the Guru Ratna Mala, was composed by one Atmabodhendra Sarasvati, disciple of the 60th and 61st Acharya-s. This author corroborates Sri Sadasiva Brahmendra's narrative of the Sankara Avatara by quoting from various old Shankara Vijaya-s which were available to Him at that time. Likewise, He also gives the charitra of the 38th Acharya Sri Abhinava Sankara in detail, including His ascension to the Sarvajna Peetham at the Sharada Kshetra in Kashmir and siddhi in the Himalaya-s from Kedara. He notes that many (even in the 17th century) had confused the stories of Shri Adi Sankara and Abhinava Sankara and hence muddled up the birth date of Sri Adi Sankaracharya.
